

CHARACTER ARC WORKSHEET / FEATURE FILM

Character Name:

Initial State:

Describe the character's starting point in the story.

What is their situation, personality, or mindset at the beginning?

What are their strengths and weaknesses?

Desire:

What does the character want to achieve or obtain throughout the story?

What is their primary goal or motivation?

External Conflict:

What external obstacles or challenges does the character face?

How do these obstacles prevent them from achieving their desire?

Internal Conflict:

What internal struggles or flaws does the character have?

How do these internal conflicts affect their ability to overcome external challenges?

Turning Points:

Identify key moments or events in the story that impact the character's arc.

Describe how these turning points affect the character's perspective, beliefs, or actions.

Transformation:

How does the character change over the course of the story?

Describe the character's growth, evolution, or redemption.

What lessons do they learn or insights do they gain?

Final State:

Describe the character's state at the end of the story.

How have they transformed or achieved their desire?

What are their new strengths and weaknesses?

Arc's Impact on the Plot:

How does the character's arc influence the overall plot?

How do their actions or choices drive the story forward?

Arc's Impact on Other Characters:

How does the character's arc affect other characters in the story?

Do they inspire or challenge others to change or grow?

Symbolic Elements:

Are there any symbolic objects, settings, or motifs associated with the character's arc?

How do these symbols reinforce or reflect the character's journey?

Additional Notes:

Include any additional thoughts, ideas, or considerations for the character's arc.

Feel free to use this template to analyze and develop the character arcs in your feature film screenplay.